HARMONY CLUB.

The Harmony club, which meets every two weeks with Miss Louise Nichols, enjoyed an interesting program last Saturday and is planning another equally delightful one for next Saturday, January 31. The numbers follow:

Ten minute major scale test.

Piano solo, "A Little Prelude" (Hoch), Catherine Jones.

Paper, "Handel," Dorothy Brown.

Paper, "Largo" (Handel), Eleanor Hys, Miss Louise Nichols.

Paper, "Haydn," Mary Morris.

"Story of the Miquel," Mary Hawthorne Lash.

"Oxen Minuet" (Haydn), Pauline Jones.

NEW BRIDGE CLUB TO BE ORGANIZED.

A new bridge club is being organized, to be a neighborhood affair, two tables, which will meet every Saturday.

Mrs. A. F. Van Delme is the hostess this afternoon and her guests are Mrs. C. H. Conner, Mrs. Harry Owen, Mrs. F. P. Woy, Mrs. R. L. Hunt, Mrs. Joseph White, Mrs. W. T. Salmon and Mrs. Bert Skinner.

PROGRESSIVE COUNTRY CLUB.

Mrs. E. E. Booth, Mountainview ranch, entertained the Progressive Country club Thursday evening in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Halloran, of Dunbury, Connecticut. Mrs. Halloran is the niece of Mrs. Booth, and she and her husband have been guests this winter at Mountainview ranch, and are returning to their eastern home Sunday, so this affair was in the nature of a farewell party.

There were games and an elaborate supper was served at small tables, each seating four persons, and by way of novelty each lady served her escort. An air of informality pervaded and everyone had the jolliest of times.

Chinese lanterns in the large yard and bright colored geraniums and other potted plants gave an appearance of joyous festivity to the affair.

The guests were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Halloran, Mr. and Mrs. William Thorton, Franklin Thorton, Mr. and Mrs. J. Kneese, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Beckwith, Mrs. Charles Lefevre, Mrs. Harry Corman, and Mrs. John Hind.

PHYSICAL CULTURE CLUB.

The bi-weekly meetings of the Physical Culture club have been featured by a number of graceful and well-arranged drills. The girls are being called upon to give exhibitions before the Parent-Teachers' association and at various church meetings, and the people are beginning to realize what a really important thing physical culture will be in the future.

WOLFE YLON TACKY DANCE.

Wolfe Ylon club is planning to have an especially gay time at a "tacky" dance next Thursday evening at the Masonic Temple. Costumes of all degrees of tackiness are being made and everyone is planning to look his worst.

In February this club will give a Washington Birthday dance, where powdered hair and elaborate colonial costumes will be in evidence.

The Wednesday sewing club met with Mrs. R. E. Curry, 415 West Cooper avenue, on Tuesday this week and enjoyed a delightful afternoon. Mrs. A. D. Ogle was the guest of the club.

THE GERMAN CLUB.

Mrs. Bernard Hild was hostess to the German club Thursday afternoon. After a very enjoyable study of Goethe's "Wilhelm Meister" all participated in a delectable Kaffeeklatsch.

Mrs. W. W. Clark of Joplin, Mo.,

who is visiting Mrs. Hild, was the guest of the club.

Mrs. J. A. Hild is entertaining the Highland Bridge club this afternoon. Guests of the club are Mrs. John Milne and Mrs. E. R. Edgar.

The Wednesday Thimble club is meeting with Mrs. Fred Pettit today.

THE PARENT-TEACHERS' ASSOCIATION.

The Parent-Teachers' association had a very pleasant and instructive meeting Monday evening. The program was especially appropriate. There was an interesting talk by Rabbi Moshe Bergman. Superintendent Milne spoke of the trust law and it was a surprise to everyone present to learn how many destitute families with small children there are in the city.

The physical culture drill by members of the recently organized Physical Culture club was greatly enjoyed and enthusiastically applauded.

A discussion followed the program, during which the establishment of a soup kitchen in the public schools was talked of. The benevolent society, the Woman's club and the Parent-Teachers' association are planning this together and there is no doubt that it would be a mighty fine thing, since there are so many poor children, needing education, who cannot bring a lunch to school.

The Woman's Catholic Order of Foresters held their annual installation of officers January 21 in Odd Fellows' hall, with a large attendance present. Rev. Father A. M. Mandelari, S. J., chaplain of Court No. 815, was present and gave the oath of office. Mrs. Switzer was presented with a handsome Forester pin as a token from the court. A card party and dance with fine refreshments followed the installation.

Friday evening, February 13, the Order of the Eastern Star will give a Valentine dance in Masonic hall. All members of the Eastern Star and

Plans for Automobile Show Going Forward Right Merrily This Week

Interest in society in the first annual Albuquerque Automobile show has been increasing, accumulating, according, enlarging and extending in the past week and has been the chief topic of conversation at all social and business gatherings during the week. The armory, February 9 to 12 is the place and date and the girls include all the reigning belles and near-belles—namely no names—in the city. Arrangements have been made for music by the Don Carlos six-piece orchestra—harp, cello, clarinet, two violins and drums—every afternoon and evening. Another stunt planned in connection with the imposing display their friends are invited. Music will be by the Booster orchestra and a good time is promised all who attend.

The Pilgrim Commandery installed officers Thursday evening and enjoyed a fine banquet and smoker afterwards. L. H. Chamberlin, deputy grand eminent commander of New Mexico, conducted the installation. The commander's jewel was given to retiring Eminent Commander L. Williamson. Dr. Hope was toastmaster at the banquet and received many clever responses.

A very interesting meeting was held by the Ladies of the Macabees Tuesday afternoon at L. O. O. F. hall. Several applications for membership were brought in. A social hour was enjoyed after the meeting at which Mrs. Sarah Goodrich drew the prize, a beautiful Japanese basket. Refreshments were served.

The Woman's Home Missionary society of the Lead Avenue Methodist church will give a tea next Friday afternoon in the church parlors from three until six o'clock. Everyone is welcome.

K. C. CELEBRATION.

The Knights of Columbus are planning a special celebration of the twelfth anniversary of the founding of the council here February 2.

There will be an elaborate banquet with toasts by a number of well known men, after which a grand ball will take place.

Committees in charge are as follows:

On reception: O. N. Marren, P. F. McCanna, Martin Tierney, Dr. J. A. Reidy, Francis E. Wood, Thomas F. Kehler, Jr., and J. W. Prestel, all past grand knights of the council.

On general arrangements: J. J. Cunningham, W. A. Tulip and B. J. Kerley.

On dance plans: Leo Murphy, Ralph J. Kehler, Don Casadon and R. F. Malette.

On banquet: T. M. Delahorde.

On the evening, February 13, the Order of the Eastern Star will give a Valentine dance in Masonic hall. All members of the Eastern Star and of auto buggies and auto girls is stereoscopic views of the roads of New Mexico, "before and after taking" the justly celebrated good roads treatment immortalized by Dr. Twitchell, Dr. Rogers, Dr. Lane, Dr. Grose and other specialists to be thrown on the walls of the armory by the local Good Roads association. Next week you will see on exhibition at Ole Matson's the fifty-dollar lunch basket—some lunch to be disposed of at the penultimate booth. Immense lithographs are being posted now for the show and there isn't a thing on the horizon to prevent its being a spectacular success.

Dr. and Mrs. J. F. Pearce returned Tuesday to Albuquerque. Mrs. Pearce has been absent from the city for some time and quite recently underwent an operation in Philadelphia from which she is recovering rapidly.

Mrs. C. Welskopf returned Friday to her home in San Rafael after spending several days with her sister, Miss Minnie Kahn, who is recovering from an attack of appendicitis.

Mrs. J. W. Zollars of Hillsboro, sister of Mrs. W. B. Hooper and well known in Albuquerque joined Mr. Zollars in El Paso this week, and they left for the east to sail February the first on the "Rotterdam" for Egypt and the Holy Land, after which they will tour Europe. Mrs. Zollars has many friends here.

Tuesday, January twentieth, a son was born to Mr. and Mrs. E. C. W. Pooler, 408 North Eleventh street.

Mrs. J. W. Crumacker, who has been the guest of Mrs. E. W. Dobson for several days, left Thursday afternoon for East Las Vegas where she will visit former Governor and Mrs. William J. Mills.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Halloran, who have been the guests of Mrs. Halloran's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Booth of Mountainview Ranch, are returning Sunday to their home in Danbury, Connecticut.

Mrs. W. W. Clark of Joplin, Mo., chief surgeon for the Santa Fe, spent reading. There were other musical numbers and a splendid talk by Miss Beebe.

A social hour during which refreshments were served followed. Mrs. Roy Strome was in charge of the social program.

Miss Beebe visited the University Friday morning and in the evening attended the meeting of the Sepewas Campfire Girls, who had a Council Fire at the home of Louise Treffenberg. Miss Beebe gave a very interesting Campfire talk.
